May 7th – 8th, 2010

Redeemer
University College
Ancaster, ON

Featuring Guest Speaker
Monica Michael

“Seeking a more intimate walk with God and developing personal wholeness
in very practical ways”

About our Speaker

Monica has been a believer for 33 years. She home-schooled all of her children Kindergarten through Grade 12 (!), and currently spends her time coaching small group leaders and leading spiritual development classes at Ada Pathway Church in Ada, MI, and developing her private counselling practice in Grand Rapids, MI.

Monica Michael holds an MA degree in counselling from Grand Rapids Theological Seminary and is currently in private practice. Her internship experiences included individual, group, and family counselling at Wedgwood Christian services; offering spiritual formation classes at Thornwood (now Ada Pathway), and providing neurofeedback therapy for the treatment of ADHD, depression and anxiety in a private practice setting.

Monica has been married to her husband Dan for 32 years. They have four adult children and 11 grandchildren (12 and 13 are due by the end of March).
